900 19th Street NW in Washington, D.C. is a 15,966-square-foot, Class A office space located blocks from the White House.

Vice President Joe McCormick and Executive Vice President John Schlegel provided tenant advisory services for CWCapital and found success in a location close to a young, talented workforce. "During the selection process we brought in Transwestern's Construction Management team to provide feedback on sites, which saved time while ensuring all of our client's goals were met," said McCormick.

CWCapital's new space on the top floor of the recently renovated building maximizes space efficiency and offers tenant amenities such as a fitness center, car charging station, conferencing facility and bicycle storage.

Nearby commuter options include Farragut West, Farragut North and Foggy Bottom-GWU transit stops.

"The location checked all the boxes in an exhaustive search process and was the culmination of a truly collaborative effort."
