

Occupier Solutions

Occupier Solutions goes far beyond real estate transactions, helping companies get extra value from their real estate through a creative, disciplined approach that challenges conventional industry thinking.

Whether for a single property or a global portfolio, our team takes a holistic view of every assignment, considering a host of factors such as business drivers, existing markets, growth strategies, logistics, productivity metrics, sustainability goals and cost savings opportunities.

Better Solutions. Bigger Results.

With hundreds of tenant advisors throughout the country, Transwestern's experience spans office, industrial, retail, healthcare and other property types. By understanding how each client's real estate objectives fit within the larger goals of the organization, we're able to deliver better solutions that achieve bigger results – results that are measured by increased efficiencies, reduced costs and smarter workplace designs that help to attract and retain high-quality employees.
